Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4, 6 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Areaux et al (US Patent 4,186,096).

Areaux et al teach most of the elements of the claimed invention including a cylindrical outer wall housing (10) with a recess defining an opening, a drive unit (12), a projection (12) matching a shape of the opening and projecting outwardly from the drive unit and through the openings, the projection engaging the opening to securely mount the drive unit (fig. 2), the opening have a given height and the projections formed of resilient elements being slightly oversized (fig.2), a radially extending wall running in radial direction, said recesses having a recessed cylindrical wall, and said openings occupying at least part of said recessed cylindrical wall and part of said radially extending wall running in radial direction (fig. 2), a projecting lugs (19), lead-in-bevels (see marked copy of figure 2) and a rotating element (11). However, Areaux et al fail to teach a second recess. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the invention was made to incorporate a second recess in the device of Areaux, since it has been held that mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art. St. Regis Paper Co. v. Bemis Co., 193 USPQ 8. It should be noted that cylindrical wall may comprise a cylindrical side wall, a flat top wall and a flat bottom wall as noted in the previous Final Office Action, 9/22/06.

Claims 1-4, 6 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Areaux et al (US Patent 4,186,096) in view of Truitt (US Patent 2,138,716).

Areaux et al teaches most of the elements of the claimed invention except for a strip having a height and running in axial direction at the inner side of the cylindrical wall. Truitt teaches a food processor with a strip (17) for insertion of the drive unit.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to provide Areaux et al with a strip for insertion of the drive unit, as taught by Truitt.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
